*Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency
Special Observances Committee
Celebrates
Administrative Support Day
April 30, 2002*

Washington, DC –The Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA) and its Special Observances Committee announces its celebration of Administrative Support Day on April 30, 2002. Administrative Support Day is CSOSA's opportunity to explain the various functions of its divisions and how they support the agency and the public. The event will be held at 300 Indiana Avenue, NW in room 2066 from 10:30 am – 1:00 pm. CSOSA has invited students and staff from Ballou, Dunbar, Roosevelt and Spingarn Senior High Schools as well as Bell Multicultural Center to attend the special observance.

CSOSA is the federal agency responsible for supervising all individuals on parole, probation, supervised release, and pretrial release in the District of Columbia. The invited guests will listen to various CSOSA department heads explain the functions of their respective divisions and how these efforts contribute towards the agency goals of reducing recidivism rates and making the city's streets safer for its citizens. The presenters will be available to answer questions from the students. The event hopes to foster interest in the agency for possible future employment .

Mr. Willie Hasson, Chairperson, Special Observances Committee said, "I'm sure this event will be very informative for our invited guests and hope we can spark the interest of some of the students in the criminal justice field."
