

Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency's Faith-Based Initiative Presents

Call to Action 2010

Celebrating Our Mission to Serve

December 9, 2010

Kellogg Center – Gallaudet College

800 Florida Avenue NE

Washington, D. C. 20002

8:30 a.m. – 3:00p.m.

CSOSA's Call to Action is a time to reflect, strategize, plan, and develop new concepts for re-entry. CSOSA along with its partnership community, utilizes this gathering as a time to listen, enlighten, learn from each other about re-entry concepts, trends, best practices and to galvanize the community around a common platform for social change. Please join our faith institutions and service providers as we respond to the Call to Action.

Keynote Speaker: Rev. Dr. Howard-John Wesley
Pastor, Alfred Street Baptist Church
Alexandria, Virginia

Workshops:

- # 1 – Called to Serve
- #2 – Bridging the Gap in Services
- #3 – Re-Entering in Times of Economic Challenges
- #4 – Strengthening the Roots of the Community

This conference will include exhibits, returning citizen panel, music, continental breakfast, lunch, and much more. For more information and to register for this important event contact Pricillia Bodger at (202) 220-5518 or pricillia.bodger@csosa.gov. The final deadline for registration is December 6, 2010.

A Community Justice Program