

MEDIA RELEASE

Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency for the District of Columbia

Nancy M. Ware
Director

James Berry
Deputy Director

Successful Reentry through Community Collaboration

The US Department of Justice designates April 24-30 as National Reentry Week. Event highlights the innovative work in the District of Columbia.

Efforts to reduce recidivism are vital to public safety. Reentry programs and strategies are the backbone of the District's and national efforts to reduce reoffending. CSOSA Director Nancy M. Ware

Who: The Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA) and the US Department of Justice, Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships.

What: Successful Reentry through Collaboration with the Community, a convening of faith leaders and reentry practitioners.

When: Tuesday, April 26, 2016, from 9:15 a.m. to 11:35 a.m. at the Reentry and Sanctions Center (Karrick Hall).

Where: 1900 Massachusetts Ave SE, Washington, DC.

Why: The US Department of Justice designated April 24 to 30 as the inaugural National Reentry Week, and asked federal agencies to hold events to highlight the work being done.

For Additional Information: Please contact Leonard Sipes at 240-882-8274 (cell) or leonardsipes@csosa.gov. ###