

CSOSA/Faith Community Partnership

Spring Training Schedule May – June 2003

- Thurs., May 22 Patterns of Criminal Thinking
(6:30 – 9:00 pm) Why do offenders choose crime? What attitudes, experiences, and thought patterns lead some people to view criminal activity as the best available option? How can we help offenders to disrupt these thought patterns and make different choices?
- Sat., May 31 Mentoring Orientation
(9:00 am - 3:30 pm) Basic information and mentoring skills workshop
- Wed., June 11 Communications Skills
(6:30 – 9:00 pm) Basic listening and communications skills
- Thurs., June 12 Communications Skills
(6:30 – 9:00 pm) Basic listening and communications skills
- Wed., June 25 Program Coordinators (For Faith Institution Coordinators only)
(6:30 – 9:00 pm) How to design a mentoring program including mentor recruitment, screening, training, supervision and reporting.

All of the above sessions will be held at:

Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency
6th Floor Training Center
633 Indiana Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D. C

Contact: Gail François
202/220-5305