A Housing Conference for Reentrants and the Faith Community

Saturday, January 31, 2009, 8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

*Paramount Baptist Church
3924 4th Street SE, Washington, DC*

Finding affordable, stable housing is one of the most critical challenges facing men and women who return from prison to the District of Columbia. This conference will assist reentrants in their search for emergency, transitional, and permanent housing. Representatives will be on hand from:

- D.C. Housing Authority
- Rental and real estate agencies
- Transitional housing programs
- Mortgage companies
- Credit counseling services
- Shelters
- Home improvement providers

In addition, this conference will focus on community pride and investment. Members of D.C. neighborhood groups, non-profit entities, and other stakeholders are invited to share in the conversation about housing and reentry.

Registration must be received by January 26. For more information or to register, contact: Christine Keels, (202) 345-4494, or christine.keels@csosa.gov.
