

Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA)
Faith-Based Initiative (FBI) Presents:

Revive the Spirit 2011

“No More Drama in My Life”

An Offender Empowerment Conference

Saturday, January 22, 2011

8:30a.m. – 1:30p.m.

Jones Memorial United Methodist Church

4625 G Street SE

Washington, D.C. 20019

The Fourth Annual Revive the Spirit Conference will focus on empowering offenders (mentees) to take action in solving the conflicts in their lives. Presenters will address relationship restoration, family reunification, money problems, team work, job retention, anger management and many other life skills.

The opening ceremony will include a keynote speaker and inspiring musical selections. The closing ceremony will honor the testimonies (experiences) of mentees in changing their lives.

A continental breakfast and light lunch will be served

To register an offender for this event, please send an e-mail with the name, PDID# and CSO name to pricillia.bodger@csosa.gov by January 19, 2011. CSS staff should also register by sending your name to the same e-mail address after receiving approval through the chain of command. Contact credits will be given to offenders who attend the entire day. Offenders will need to sign in and out.

To register a mentor, please contact the Cluster Coordinators office by January 19, 2011 at:

Cluster A – kayari.faihtpartnership@gmail.com

Cluster B – tonmcn@aol.com

Cluster C – mramsey@daprp.org

For more information, contact Hallem Williams, Program Analyst, CSOSA at 202-220-5306 or hallem.williams@csosa.gov.

A Community Justice Program